

North West Visual Cognition Group Workshop (2)

Liverpool Hope University
Hope Park Sports Room 106
November 9th 2022

09.30-10.00	Arrival, tea and coffee
10.00-10.15	Welcome – Professor Nick Donnelly, Liverpool Hope University
10.15-10.45	Dr Letizia Palumbo and Dr Neil Harrison, Liverpool Hope University Visual exploration mediates the influence of personality traits on responses to artworks in an art gallery setting
10.45-11.15	Dr Tobiasz Trawiński, Liverpool Hope University Cultural variation in eye movements during painting perception
11.15-11.45	Coffee and Research Discussion
11.45-12.30	INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKER - Professor Dan Smith, Durham University What can cognitive neuropsychology tell us about the role of the oculomotor system in covert spatial attention?
12.30-13.00	Dr Tom Beesley, Lancaster University eyetools: A set of tools for eye data processing, analysis and visualisation in R
13.00-14.00	Lunch and Research Discussion
14.00-14.30	INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKER - Dr Paul Skarratt, University of Hull Solving a looming puzzle in visual search
14.30-15.00	Dr Luc Boutsen, Aston University Recognition memory and first impressions from faces with disfiguring features
15.00-15.30	Coffee and Research Discussion

15.30-16.15	INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKER - Dr Soazig Casteau, Durham University The relationship between spatial attention and oculomotor control: evidence for a dissociation between involuntary and voluntary orienting
16.15-16.45	Dr Catherine Thompson, Liverpool Hope University The influence of habit on the control of visual attention
16.45-17.00	Concluding Remarks – Professor Nick Donnelly, Liverpool Hope University
17.30-18.30	Pub
18.30+	Restaurant